

PERSONAL PROPERTY POLICY

PURPOSE

To explain McClelland College policy in relation to personal property and to ensure that special or valuable items of personal property are not brought to school.

SCOPE

This policy applies to all school activities, including camps and excursions.

POLICY

McClelland College understands that staff and/or students may sometimes like to bring items of personal property to school.

The Department of Education and Training does not have insurance for personal property of staff, students and visitors. McClelland College does not take responsibility for items of personal property that are lost, stolen or damaged at school or during school activities. Damage to personal property brought to school is the responsibility of the owner of that property.

McClelland College encourages staff and students not to bring items of value to school, or to obtain appropriate insurance for such items.

[Amend/include as appropriate:] If students bring items of value to school, they will be confiscated and stored securely at [insert location, i.e. the School Office] until the end of the day, when the items may be collected by the student and/or parent.

If theft/damage occurs to personal goods of staff or students the school will act in good faith to facilitate in the recovery or repair of goods. This may involve seeking assistance from the police.

REVIEW CYCLE

This policy was last updated on 1/2/2019 and is scheduled for review in 2020.